Interpreta

adecuadamente textos escritos sencillos y expresiones cotidianas de uso frecuente relacionadas con áreas de experiencia que son especialmente relevantes (información básica sobre la familia, compras, lugares de interés, ocupaciones, entre otros). Interpreta mensajes escritos que describen tareas simples y cotidianas, que no requieran más que expresiones sencillas y directas que sean conocidas o habituales. Selecciona textos escritos sencillos que desarrollen el placer de la lectura sobre aspectos del pasado y su entorno, así como cuestiones relacionadas con sus necesidades inmediatas.

Escribe frases y oraciones cotidianas de uso frecuente relacionadas con áreas de experiencia que le son especialmente relevantes (información básica sobre sí mismo y su familia, compras, lugares de interés, ocupaciones, entre otros). Redacta mensajes escritos que describen tareas simples y cotidianas que impliquen información sencilla.

Meta de aprendizaje:

L1: Entiende las letras del alfabeto inglés cuando las escucha e identifica las diferencias de fonemas. Comprende la idea principal de una conversación oral con base en expresiones básicas, tales como saludos y vocabulario sencillo. Puede comprender preguntas sencillas que solicitan información personal propia y de otros: como nombre, edad, nacionalidad, características, hábitos y habilidades.

S1: Comprende y se comunica de manera oral utilizando expresiones básicas, tales como saludos, palabras y frases sencillas relativas a sus datos personales y situaciones concretas. Puede dar descripciones básicas de algunos objetos, animales, lugares y alimentos como opinión, tamaño u origen. Plantea y responde preguntas simples con expresiones muy breves y preparadas con anticipación. Participa en conversaciones de manera sencilla

R1: Reconoce palabras y frases muy básicas sobre datos personales que aparecen en textos como tarjetas de identificación, formatos de registro, letreros o agendas. Identifica significados a partir de la información escrita expresada en textos. Comprende la idea general de textos sencillos sobre información personal, descripciones, hábitos, habilidades y alimentos.

W1: Brinda información personal de manera escrita en un formulario estándar, como en el registro de un gimnasio. Expresa de manera escrita frases y oraciones sencillas considerando las reglas de ortografía y puntuación, como utilizar mayúscula al mencionar nacionalidades, escribir el signo de interrogación al final de una pregunta o utilizar comas cuando enlista datos como una relación de alimentos. Redacta descripciones breves y sencillas sobre personas, objetos, lugares y rutinas y se apoya de elementos textuales para dar sentido al escrito.

Progresiones de aprendizaje:

1. Comprende el uso del verbo ser o estar (afirmativo, negativo e interrogativo) y los pronombres personales para presentar información propia y de otros.
2. Identifica los imperativos para promover la comunicación en el salón de clases en una segunda lengua al dar y seguir instrucciones.
3. Comprende el uso de los verbos to be y have para describir personas, lugares o cosas y utiliza los adjetivos calificativos y artículos indefinidos para detallar las características.
4. Comprende el uso de los adjetivos demostrativos (this, that, these, those) en su forma afirmativa, negativa e interrogativa para señalar algo o alguien con base en su ubicación (si se encuentra lejos o cerca) y cantidad (singular o plural).

Introducción

Gracias a la invención del internet y al desarrollo de las tecnologías de la información y la comunicación, es posible comunicarse con alguna persona que se encuentre al otro lado del mundo en cuestión de segundos; ya sea, por medio de videollamadas, audios, mensajes de texto, correo electrónico, entre otros; sin embargo, esto resultaría imposible si nuestro interlocutor no habla español y nosotros no podemos entender la lengua que se habla en otros países. “Para solucionar este problema, en todo el mundo se ha adoptado el idioma inglés como lengua franca, es decir, un idioma utilizado para la comunicación entre grupos de personas que hablan diferentes idiomas” (Cambridge Dictionary), por lo que el inglés se ha convertido en el idioma universal y es, además, el idioma más aprendido en el mundo. Millones de personas deciden estudiar inglés como segundo idioma, con la finalidad de que al obtener un buen nivel de conocimiento y entendimiento del idioma inglés, no solo te traerá ventajas, tanto a nivel personal como profesional, sino que además te proveerá de las herramientas necesarias para convertirte en un ciudadano del mundo y poder participar en temas sociales, deportivos, económicos, políticos y ambientales a nivel global, por lo cual, es necesario aprender y dominar este idioma.

Las guías didácticas que vas a utilizar para este fin están diseñadas para ayudarte a adquirir el idioma de forma fácil y efectiva, por lo que te invitamos a realizar todas las actividades propuestas, y verás que en poco tiempo habrás alcanzado el dominio básico del inglés.

En este primer bloque de la guía de inglés, se te presentarán distintos conocimientos básicos que utilizarás durante todo el curso completo. En el cual aprenderás a distinguir y a utilizar distintas reglas gramaticales, entre ellas, la forma afirmativa, negativa e interrogativa. Asimismo, recuerda que tendrás el apoyo de tu maestro de grupo para poder aclarar tus dudas.

II. Complete the sentences with the forms of to be in the present simple (am, is, are).

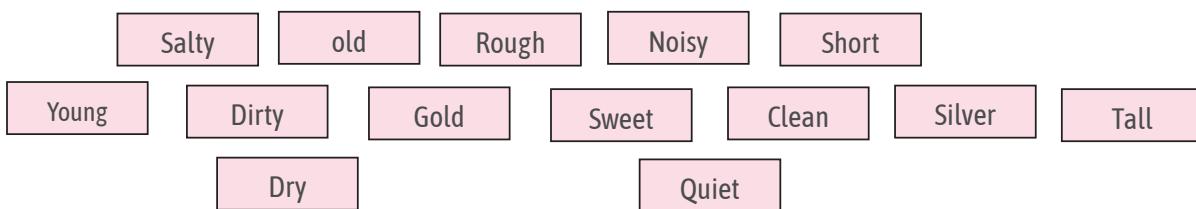

1. We ____ in the park
2. They ____ on holidays
3. She ____ at home
4. The cat ____ under the table
5. You ____ right!

III. Change the following affirmative sentences into negative ones.

1. He is very funny
2. My sister is a good swimmer
3. They are in Italy
4. Uncle George is a good football player
5. The shoes are white

IV. Place the adjective that corresponds to each category in the following table.

| Size | Age | Condition | Taste | Touch | Sound | Material |
|------|-----|-----------|-------|-------|-------|----------|
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |

V. Match both columns by placing the letter that translates each sentence inside the parenthesis.

Construye tu proyecto transversal

Progresión ciencias sociales:

Identifica, indaga y define los procesos de producción (¿qué producir?, ¿cómo producir? ¿cuánto producir? y ¿para quién producir?), sus factores (tierra y recursos naturales, mano de obra, capital-maquinaria, equipo (tecnología) y organización), incluido en este proceso la relación que se establece con la naturaleza, y a partir de ello, indagar los conceptos de economía circular y economía ecológica para observar e identificar la forma en que se relacionan con los procesos de producción, ¿ello ayuda a la preservación del medio ambiente para poder continuar los procesos de producción en el futuro? Estos cuestionamientos ayudan a comprender y explicar cómo se satisfacen las necesidades en la comunidad, región, país y mundo.

Progresión cultura digital:

Utiliza el ciberespacio y servicios digitales conforme a normatividad y al contexto personal, académico, social y ambiental, para integrarse con seguridad en ambientes virtuales.

Conoce y utiliza herramientas de productividad: procesadores de texto, hojas de cálculo y presentaciones electrónicas para acceder al conocimiento y la experiencia de ciencias sociales, ciencias naturales, experimentales y tecnología, humanidades, recursos sociocognitivos y socioemocionales según el contexto.

Progresiones en inglés:

- Comprende el uso del verbo ser o estar (afirmativo, negativo e interrogativo) y los pronombres personales para presentar información propia y de otros.
- Identifica los imperativos para promover la comunicación en el salón de clases en una segunda lengua al dar y seguir instrucciones
- Comprende el uso de los verbos to be y have para describir personas, lugares o cosas y utiliza los adjetivos calificativos y artículos indefinidos para detallar las características.
- Comprende el uso de los adjetivos demostrativos (this, that, these, those) en su forma afirmativa, negativa e interrogativa para señalar algo o alguien con base en su ubicación (si se encuentra lejos o cerca) y cantidad (singular o plural).

Los proyectos transversales que a continuación se sugieren tienen como propósito describir a través de un video (cultura digital) tu comunidad y los productos que se cultivan en ella (ciencias sociales) en inglés así como las propuestas para preservar el medio ambiente a través de los procesos productivos (ciencias sociales).

Actividad 1:

Formar 5 equipos de trabajo y a través de un video, de máximo 5 minutos grabado con tu celular, describe en inglés los productos que se cultivan en tu localidad o comunidad y los procesos de producción. Resalta en tu descripción el uso del verbo to be, to have, adjetivos calificativos, artículos indefinidos y adjetivos demostrativos en inglés. Si no cuentas con equipo adecuado para grabar el video se puede realizar a través de una computadora como un texto escrito. En plenaria, exponer el trabajo realizado y retroalimentar.

Actividad 2:

Describe a través de un texto en computadora en inglés ¿de qué forma los procesos de producción en tu comunidad pueden preservar el medio ambiente? Si ya existe alguna iniciativa o propuesta, descríbelas. En el caso de no existir alguna, propón una que preserve el medio ambiente de tu localidad o comunidad. Recuerda utilizar las estructuras gramaticales que estudiarás en este módulo 1 de inglés I.

En equipos, realiza un periódico mural creativo con las propuestas presentadas y exponerlo ante el grupo. Trata de practicar la pronunciación clara de todas las ideas planteadas.

Desarrollo de progresiones

To begin with this English course we are going to start by knowing the alphabet in English. Watch and listen to the following video and repeat as many times as necessary.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bGLbYVFzMwk>

After having learned the alphabet, it is time to know the personal pronouns. Pay attention!

Progresión

Comprende el uso del verbo ser o estar (afirmativo, negativo e interrogativo) y los pronombres personales para presentar información propia y de otros.

Personal Pronouns

Please read the following description carefully:

Luis and I are students. Luis and I study in a Telebachillerato. Luis and I are 15 years old. Luis and I are good friends.

Sounds weird, right? This is because of the constant repetition of the names. To avoid this, personal pronouns are used to replace the name of a person, animal, or object in a sentence, obtaining greater fluency in the speech.

Observe the following chart.

MÓDULO I

Nice to meet you

| Personal pronoun | Meaning in Spanish |
|------------------|--------------------|
| I | Yo |
| He | Él |
| She | Ella |
| It | Eso |
| You | Tú / Ustedes |
| We | Nosotros |
| They | Ellos |

Of all of them, there is only a couple that is different from Spanish. “It” is a pronoun that we don’t have in Spanish, and it is used to talk about anything that is not human, and that is only one or is considered uncountable (like music, for example). On the other hand, the pronoun “you” has a meaning for the singular and another for the plural; to know what use is being given in a sentence, we must pay attention to the context.

- I. Write the personal pronoun that best describes each of the following images.

- II. Fill the blanks with the correct personal pronouns. Pay attention at the bold letters.

- a) Who are Hugo and Maria Luisa? _____ are my parents.
- b) Where is Rebecca? _____ at home.
- c) Is this your book? Yes, _____ is.
- d) How old is Candido? _____ is 18 years old.
- e) Are you and Angelina in Xalapa? No, _____ are in Cordoba.

III. Replace the underlined words by a personal pronoun. Check the example:

Pedro is my friend → He is my friend

- 1) Pop music is very nice _____
- 2) Jacqueline is intelligent _____
- 3) Victor and Eduardo are friends _____
- 4) Cesar is adventurous _____
- 5) Erika and I are in the house _____

Affirmative sentences with verb “to be”

One of the most used verbs in English is the verb “to be”, which is essential to share personal information, and it is our objective in this first module, hence the importance of learning and mastering it.

As you know, the verb “to be” has two meanings in Spanish: “Ser” or “Estar”; to know which of the two meanings is being used, you must pay attention to the context.

Unlike Spanish, verbs in English do not change their form according to the pronoun they accompany, for example:

|----------|------------------|
| I play | Yo juego |
| You play | Tu juegas |
| We play | Nosotros jugamos |

However, the verb “to be” is an exception, since, similar to Spanish, this verb is conjugated according to the pronoun that precedes it, as shown below:

| Pronoun | Verb “to be” | Translation |
|---------|--------------|--|
| I | am | Yo soy / yo estoy. |
| He | is | Él es / él está. |
| She | is | Ella es / ella está. |
| It | is | Eso es/ eso está. |
| You | are | Tú eres/ tú estás/ ustedes son/ ustedes están. |
| We | are | Nosotros somos/ nosotros estamos. |
| They | are | Ellos son/ ellos están. |

MÓDULO I

Nice to meet you

It is worth mentioning that, in all languages, we tend to join or shorten words, especially when we communicate in an informal context; these are called contractions. In Spanish it is very common to omit the subject of a sentence (example: eres joven). On the other hand, in English, a sentence always has a subject. For the verb “to be” the following contractions apply:

| Verb to be | contraction |
|------------|-------------|
| I am | I'm |
| He is | He's |
| She is | She's |
| It is | It's |
| You are | You're |
| We are | We're |
| They are | They're |

Some of these contractions have a similar sound to other words, however the meaning is different, example:

It's (eso es) – Its (su, de eso)

You're (tu eres / estás) – Your (tu, tus)

IV. Complete the following sentences with the correct form of verb “to be”(am, is or are) :

- a) She _____ intelligent
- b) They _____ tall
- c) I _____ funny
- d) He _____ my friend
- e) We _____ Mexicans
- f) You _____ a student
- g) It _____ beautiful
- h) Adela and Pilar _____ in Xico
- i) The Dogs _____ hungry
- j) Eduardo and I _____ teachers.

V. Order the following words to form coherent sentences using the verb “to be”

- a) blue / car / the / is _____
- b) they / brothers / my / are _____
- c) a / is / it / tablet _____
- d) students / we / are _____
- e) am / I / Happy _____
- f) Italian / he / is _____
- g) in / school / are / you / the _____
- h) is / Nadia / beautiful _____
- i) Esteban / are / Rubén / friends / and / my _____
- j) big / window / the / is _____

VI. Translate from English to Spanish or Spanish to English according to each sentence.

- a) I am Celia Vazquez _____
- b) Nosotros somos felices _____
- c) He is African _____
- d) Eso es un animal _____
- e) You are American _____
- f) Ella es famosa _____
- g) It is my favorite _____
- h) Marcos y Enrique son amigos _____
- i) The book is new _____
- j) El auto es eléctrico _____

Negative sentences with “to be”

VII. Complete the following conversations according to each picture.

| | | |
|--|--|---|
| | | |
| Player #20: You are tall! Player #23: No, _____ tall. | Antonio: They are Los Tigres del Norte. Diana: They _____ Los Tigres del Norte! | Ale: Wow! Mario is in Cancun... Ramón: He _____ in Cancun. |

Negative sentences with the verb “to be” are formed by adding the word not after its conjugation, in such a way that the structure is as follows:

| Pronombre + Verbo To Be + Negación + Complemento | | | |
|--|----------|------------|--------------------|
| I Yo | am no | not soy | Shakira Shakira |

In the previous example you can see that the position of the negation (not) and the verb “to be” (am) do not coincide with respect to the sentence in English. This happens because sometimes English follows a different logic to Spanish to order the words, in this case, they would literally say: “Yo soy no Shakira”, but if it is translated word by word, it loses meaning in Spanish, for that reason, the meaning is not translated but interpreted.

In the following table you can see the negative forms of the verb To Be.

| Personal Pronoun | Verb to be | Negative form | Translation |
|------------------|------------|---------------|--|
| I | am | not | Yo no soy/ yo no estoy |
| He | is | not | Él no es/ él no está |
| She | is | not | Ella no es/ ella no está |
| It | is | not | Eso no es / eso no está |
| You | are | not | Tú no eres/ tú no estás/ ustedes no son/ ustedes no están. |
| We | are | not | Nosotros no somos/ nosotros no estamos |
| They | are | not | Ellos no son/ ellos no están. |

NOT

In a similar way to the affirmative case, the negations also form a contraction, but in this case, the form of the verb “to be” is joined with the word not, except for the first person singular (I)*, which preserves the contraction used in the affirmative sentence.

| Negative form | Contraction |
|---------------|-------------|
| Verb to be | |
| I am not* | I'm not |
| He is not | He isn't |
| She is not | She isn't |
| It is not | It isn't |
| You are not | You aren't |
| We are not | We aren't |
| They are not | They aren't |

It is time to practice :

VIII. Complete the negative sentences with the missing words.

- 1) Emilio _____ not quiet
- 2) It is _____ a banana
- 3) _____ am not an architect
- 4) He is _____ the president
- 5) _____ are not Americans
- 6) Mariela is _____ in Orizaba
- 7) I'm _____ a Pirate
- 8) We _____ not photographers
- 9) _____ isn't a restaurant
- 10) Papantla _____ not in the stated of Puebla

IX. Change the following affirmative sentences into negative,

1. Claudia and Mary are friends _____
2. I am in Veracruz _____
3. She is rich _____
4. It is a plant _____
5. We are in a meeting _____
6. They are immigrants _____
7. I am a tourist _____
8. It is a secret _____
9. Gabriel is the leader _____
10. My dog is ferocious _____

MÓDULO I

Nice to meet you

X. Translate to Spanish or English the following sentences.

1. Ellos no son artistas

2. I am not sad

3. Ella no esta en Minatitlán

4. It isn't a chimpanzee

5. Nosotros no somos viejos

6. Jazmin is not an adult

7. La T.V. no es grande

8. You are not Canadian

9. Ustedes no están en la casa

10. I'm not a teacher

Interrogative sentences with “to be”

In Spanish, we don't have a specific way to ask a question; we distinguish between the affirmation and the question based on the intonation, that is, on the way of pronouncing the sentence. English is more practical and precise, therefore, to avoid possible confusion, there is a special way to form questions, you simply must change the order between the pronoun and the auxiliary (in this case, the verb “to be”). This structure is the next one:

| Verbo To be + Pronombre + Nombre de la persona+ question mark | | |
|---|-----------|----------------|
| Are ¿Eres | you tu | Paty? Paty? |

In the following table you can see how to ask with the different forms of the verb “to be”.

| Verb to be | Pronoun | Translation |
|------------|---------|--|
| Am | I? | ¿Yo soy? / ¿yo estoy? |
| Is | he ? | ¿Él es? / ¿él está? |
| Is | she ? | ¿Ella es? / ¿Ella está? |
| Is | it ? | ¿Eso es? / ¿Eso está? |
| Are | you ? | ¿Tú eres? / ¿tu estas? / ¿Ustedes son? / ¿Ustedes están? |
| Are | we ? | ¿Nosotros somos? / ¿nosotros estamos? |
| Are | they ? | ¿Ellos son? / ¿ellos están? |

In the case of the interrogation, there are no contractions.

When we ask a question of this type, there are only two possible answers: yes or no, but in English, this answer is accompanied by the verb “to be”, for example:

Are you from Veracruz?
 Answers:
 Yes, I am / No, I am not
 Sí, yo soy / estoy / No, yo no soy / estoy

So, the answer depends on the form of the verb “to be” that is used in the question, it is the way to answer, for example:

If the question is:

Is he Juan?

The answer must be yes, he is, or no, he is not.

But if you ask directly to the person, for example:

Are you Juan?

He or she is not going to answer yes, you are, or no you are not, because it does not match with what they ask him or her, rather the person would say yes, I am, or no, I am not.

It is the same case if someone is asked about a group of people they belong to:

Are you students?

The answer should be yes, we are, or no, we are not.

Let's practice:

XI. Circle the right option to form an interrogative sentence with “to be”:

- | | |
|--------------------------|---|
| a) am / are you short? | f) is I / he a baseball player? |
| b) is he / we sad? | g) are / we they English? |
| c) do / are they hungry? | h) you / am I tall? |
| d) is / does it helpful? | i) are Pedro / Pedro and Luis students? |
| e) am she / I shy? | j) is the dog / the cats noisy? |

XII. Write your own questions using the words in the box below.

Happy – French – Veterinarian – in Poza Rica – Old

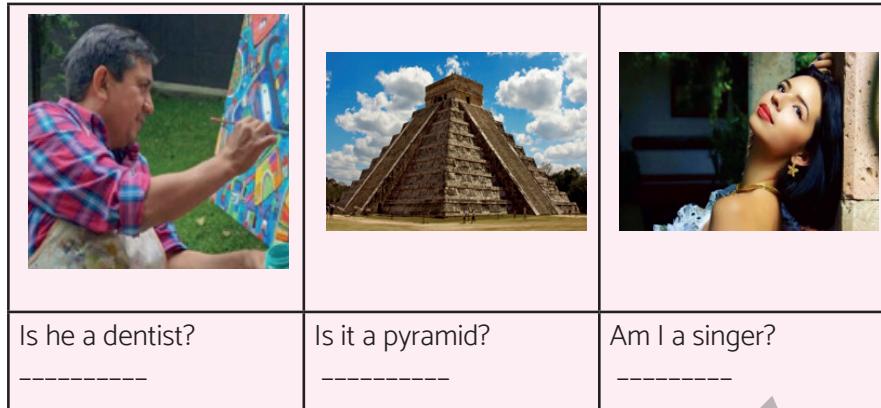

Tall – in the market – Mexican – Taxi driver - Sad

- 1) _____ ?
- 2) _____ ?
- 3) _____ ?
- 4) _____ ?
- 5) _____ ?
- 6) _____ ?
- 7) _____ ?
- 8) _____ ?
- 9) _____ ?
- 10) _____ ?

Am-Is-Are

XIII. Answer the questions according to each of the following images.

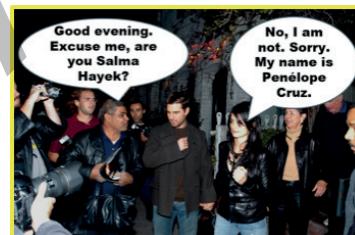

| | | |
|---|---|---|
|  |  |  |
| Is the baby tall? ----- | Is she sad? ----- | Am I a doctor? ----- |
|  |  |  |
| Are we actors ? ----- | Are they Mexican ? ----- | Is he in the beach ? ----- |

Personal information with “to be”.

What are they saying in the following images?

Some of the questions related to personal information are based on the verb “to be”. Next, we will show you the most important ones.

To ask someone directly for their first or last name, the questions are used: To To

| | |
|---|---|
| What is your name? ¿Cómo te llamas? | What is your last name? ¿Cómo te apellidos? |
|---|---|

To answer this question, you also use the possessive adjective (My) and the verb “to be” (is)

My name is _____
Mi nombre es _____

If we have doubts about the identity of a person, we can use a question of the verb “to be”.

| |
|--|
| Are you Salma Hayek? ¿Eres tú Salma Hayek? |
|--|

How old are you? When is your birthday?

XIV. Complete the name of the cardinal or ordinal number, or the month with the missing vowels.

| | | | |
|---------|-------|-----------|-----------|
| | | | |
| F_LRT_N | F_RST | D_C_M_B_R | S_XT_N |
| | | | |
| F_BR_RY | F_RTH | F_FT_N | S_PT_MB_R |

On the other hand, to ask about age, we use the following question:

How old are you?
¿Cuántos años tienes?

In English is used the verb “to be” to answer this question. It is important to mention that in this case, we will use the cardinal numbers.

I am fifteen years old
Yo tengo 15 años

When you want to know about the birthday, you must use the next question:

When is your birthday?
¿Cuándo es tu cumpleaños?

And you answer like this:

My birthday is on -----
Mi cumpleaños es el -----

Remember that in English the month is mentioned first and then the date, using ordinal numbers.

Where are you from?

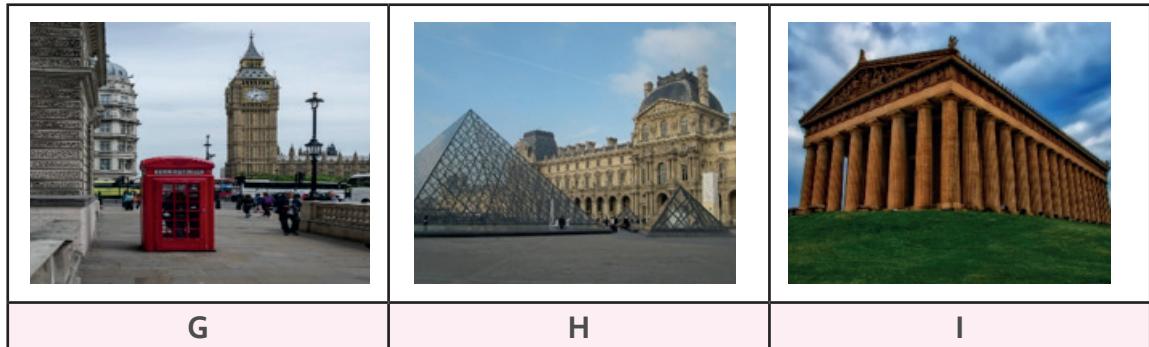

XV. Match the images with the name of the country and nationality from the box below, by writing them under the proper letter.

China - Chinese / Grece - Greek / Canada – Canadian
Spain – Spanish / Mexico – Mexican / France – French
United States – American / England – English / Japan - Japanese

MÓDULO I

Nice to meet you

If you want to ask someone about his or her place of origin, we use the question:

Where are you from?
¿De dónde eres?

As you can notice, this question uses the verb “to be”, then, we use the same verb to answer it, plus the word “from” and the name of the country, for example:

I am from Mexico
Yo soy de Mexico

There is another question related to the place of origin, it is:

What is your nationality?
¿Cuál es tu nacionalidad?

We also answer this question using the verb “to be”, but in this case, we do not mention the name of the country, but the nationality, for example:

I am Mexican
Yo soy Mexicano(a)

Look at the annexes section to learn more about nationalities.

What do you do?

XVI. Unscramble the letters to form the English name of each profession or job.

Write the correct word on the line.

Identifica los imperativos para promover la comunicación en el salón de clases en una segunda lengua al dar y seguir instrucciones.

Imperatives

Think about the following question: What is the difference between order, warning and instruction? Then, share your answer with your classmates. Finally, classify the next actions into order, warning or instruction.

Remember that:

Order: an authoritative command, direction, or instruction.

Warning: a statement or event that indicates a possible or impending danger, problem, or other unpleasant situation.

Instruction: detailed information telling how something should be done, operated, or assembled.

1. Adjust rack to middle position.
2. Preheat oven to 450°
3. Remove plastic wrap & slide pizza off cardboard onto middle rack, leaving parchment paper under the pizza.
4. Bake 8-14 minutes, or to your liking.
DO NOT BAKE ON CARDBOARD!
5. Slide baked pizza back onto cardboard, and remove from oven carefully. Use both hands to avoid pizza from falling.
6. Cut and serve. Be careful, as pizza will be HOT!

SAY GRACE AND ENJOY!

Baking Tips

- For best results, bake one pizza at a time.
- May bake 2 pizzas only if using a convection oven & similar amounts of toppings on pizzas.
- Refrigerate up to 2 days.
- If refrigerated, make sure to set pizza out to bring to room temperature (1-2 hours) before cooking.

DO NOT

- DO NOT bake on cardboard
- DO NOT freeze pizzas
- DO NOT bake cold pizzas
- DO NOT microwave to cook pizza
- DO NOT put into a non preheated oven

XXIII. Look carefully at the following images and classify, inside the following table, the actions below into order, warning or instruction.

| Order | Warning | Instruction |
| | | |

We can use imperatives to give orders, commands, warning, or instructions. To do an imperative sentence, you must use just the infinitive of the verb (the verb without "to"), you don't have to mention the personal pronoun.

MÓDULO I

Nice to meet you

For example:

- Pay attention!
- Wait your turn.

If you use the word “please” after your imperative, it turns into a polite request.

- Open your book, please.
- Keep silence, please.

To make a negative imperative, put “do not” or “don’t” before the verb:

For example:

- Don’t eat in class!
- Do not raise your hand

XXIV. Match the columns by writing in the parenthesis the letter that represents the right meaning.

- | | |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------|
| a) Wait your turn | () Levanta tu mano |
| b) Don’t open your book | () No te quedes en tu asiento |
| c) Line up quietly | () Formate tranquilamente |
| d) Raise your hand | () No comas en clase |
| e) Don’t eat in class | () Espera tu turno |
| f) Don’t keep silence | () Lee cuidadosamente |
| g) Read carefully | () No abras tu libro |
| h) Pay attention | () Pon atención |
| i) Don’t stay in your seat | () No guardes silencio |

XXV. Choose and mark with a tick ✓ if you can do or can’t do according to the pictures.

| | | |
|---|---|--|
|  |  |  |
| 1. (<input type="checkbox"/>) Swim (<input type="checkbox"/>) Don’t swim | 2. (<input type="checkbox"/>) Smoked permitted (<input type="checkbox"/>) Don’t smoke inside | 3. (<input type="checkbox"/>) Pets allow (<input type="checkbox"/>) Pets prohibited |
|  |  |  |
| 4. (<input type="checkbox"/>) Bike area (<input type="checkbox"/>) Bike prohibited | 5. (<input type="checkbox"/>) Cell phone permitted (<input type="checkbox"/>) Don’t use cell permitted | 6. (<input type="checkbox"/>) Camera allowed (<input type="checkbox"/>) Don’t take photos |

Comprende el uso de los verbos to be y have para describir personas, lugares o cosas y utiliza los adjetivos calificativos y artículos indefinidos para detallar las características

XXIX. Describe the physical features of the following notable people from our state using only one word on the line.

| | | |
|-----------------------------------|--|--|
| | | |
| Diego López Paralympic Athlete | Ernesto García Cabral Draftsman and painter | Paquita la del Barrio Singer |
| | | |
| Ana de la Reguera Actress | Crisanto Grajales Triathlete | Francisco Gabilondo Soler Singer / Composer |

The verb “to be” is also used to describe the physical appearance of people. To do this we must mention an adjective. Look at the following examples:

I am tall

She is beautiful

They are young

MÓDULO I

Nice to meet you

Adjectives are words that are used to describe people, places, or objects. They usually allow us to answer the question:

What is it like?

With adjectives we can describe the shape (round, square, wide), appearance (big, small, blue), feelings (happy, sad, angry), personality (kind, intelligent, nice), state (clean, dry, cold), flavor (sweet, bitter, spicy), nationality (Mexican, English, Italian), among other characteristics.

It is worth mentioning that, unlike in Spanish, in English the adjectives are placed before the noun:

El muchacho alto

The tall boy

Furthermore, in English adjectives do not differentiate between gender and number.

El muchacho alto

Los muchachos altos

La muchacha alta

Las muchachas altas

The tall boy

The tall boys

The tall girl

The tall girls

On the other hand, it must be considered that, in Spanish, if you want to mention two or more adjectives to describe something or someone, it is not necessary to mention them in a special order, however, in English there is a special order to do so, which is shared below:

| 1 Número | 2 Opinión | 3 Tamaño | 4 Forma | 5 Condición | 6 Antigüedad | 7 Color | 8 Patrón | 9 Origen | 10 Material | 11 Propósito |
|-------------|--------------|-------------|------------|----------------|-----------------|------------|-------------|------------------|----------------|-----------------|
| First | Funny | Medium | Square | Cleaned | New | Reddish | Criss-cross | Extraterrestrial | Wooden | Cooking |
| Thousand | Beautiful | Huge | Round | Broken | Old | Green | Flowery | American | Metal | Sleeping |
| Three | Stupid | Small | Heavy | Pristine | Recent | Light | Chequered | Southern | Cotton | Cutting |
| ... | ... | ... | ... | ... | ... | ... | ... | ... | ... | ... |

For example, to say My American beautiful green jacket is incorrect because the order of adjectives. The right way to mention that is:

My beautiful green American jacket.

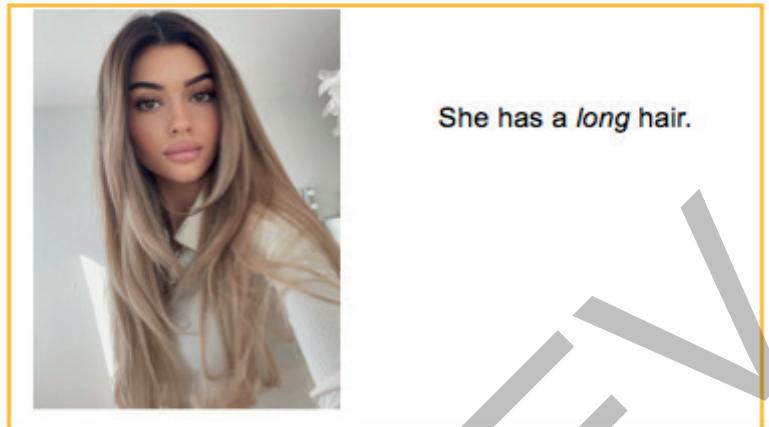

If we want to describe a specific part of a person's body, then we must use the verb have, as follows:

| Person | Verb to have | Indefinite article | Adjective | Part of the body |
|--------|--------------|--------------------|-----------|------------------|
| I | have | a | big | nose |

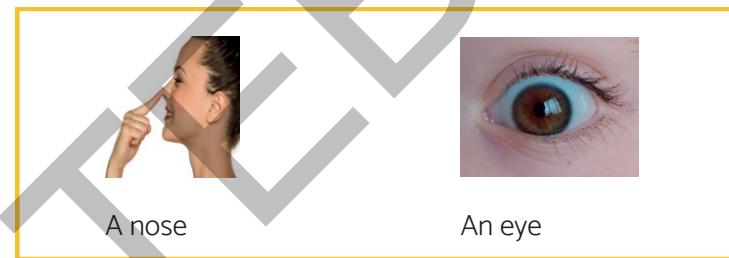

However, it is important to make the following clarifications:

If our description includes the pronouns I, you, we, or they, is used the verb to have, but if a description is made with, he, she, or it, then the verb to have changes form to has, due to a grammatical rule that will be explained in detail later. For example:

The letter "a" between "has" and "long" fulfills the function of the indefinite article, a word that is used to refer to some noun in general, for example, if we are in class, and the teacher says: "Take out a book", we could take whatever it is, since when using the word a, it does not refer to anyone in particular.

This article is used interchangeably with masculine or feminine, singular, and plural nouns, thus having the meaning in Spanish of: Un, uno, una, unos or unas, however, we must know that it has two forms because "a" is used before for nouns that begin with a consonant letter sound, and "an" for words that begin with a vowel sound. For example:

And if the part of the body that we are going to describe is expressed in the plural, then it does not have the indefinite article.

He has a strong arm.

He has strong arms.

Comprende el uso de los adjetivos demostrativos (this, that, these, those) en su forma afirmativa, negativa e interrogativa para señalar algo o alguien con base en su ubicación (si se encuentra lejos o cerca) y cantidad (singular o plural).

Demonstrative pronouns

XXXIII. Watch the objects that are in the following chart and look for them around your classroom. If you find something, draw under the image a check mark.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
|  |  |  |
| School bag | Tablet | Sharpener |
|  |  |  |
| Laptop | Book | Pen / Pencil |
|  |  |  |
| Desk | Table | Television |
|  |  |  |
| Notebook | Fan | Glue |
|  |  |  |
| Scissors | Ruler | Calculator |

Demonstrative pronouns are words that indicate the proximity (near or far) of thing (singular) or things (plural). Look at the following chart.

| | NEAR | FAR |
|----------|---|---|
| SINGULAR |  This book |  That book |
| PLURAL |  These books |  Those books |

You can combine any of these words with the verb to be to create affirmative, negative, or interrogative sentences, and thus describe your environment or ask about it, for example:

| Affirmative form | Negative form | Interrogative form |
|---------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| This is a pencil | This is not a pencil | Is this a pencil ? |
| That is a book | That is not a book | Is that a book ? |
| These are notebooks | These are not notebooks | Are these notebooks ? |
| Those are crayons | Those are not crayons | Are those crayons ? |

XXXIV. Complete the following descriptions with this, that, these or those, according to the distance observe in each to the image.
